

2024 BUTTE COUNTY 4-H CAMP

Adult Information

Volunteering as an Adult Camper is an excellent opportunity to enhance and share your leadership skills AND provide an enjoyable experience for campers. The major responsibility of an adult will be to assist and guide teen counselors, as well as help campers, when needed. If this appeals to you, we encourage you to apply to be a member of the 2024 4-H Camp Staff.

Each club must provide one woman for every 7 girls and one man for every 7 boys or fraction thereof.

Registration: Due by Friday, May 17, 2024, 5:00 PM to the 4-H Office

All adults interested in attending camp, as a counselor must:

- ☞ Be a certified and have fingerprint clearance by the 4-H office, also have filled out and turned in a 4-H leader application. If you are not presently certified, please arrange with Maisie Cousins to participate in a one-hour certification session prior to camp.
- ☞ Complete adult registration, code of conduct form and medical release form.
- ☞ Attend one camp counselor meeting for safety training in June

4-H Camp: Camp Rockin U, Lake Francis, Dobbins, California.

ROLE OF THE ADULT CHAPERONE: The adult chaperons play a special role at 4-H Camp. They are at Camp to ensure safety for our youth campers and teen counselors. While adults are there to watch and guarantee safety, the teen counselors have planned and trained for this camp all year, please allow them to make decisions and handle situations. This is a learning experience and adults are there to provide support and reason if needed.

SPECIAL ACCOMODATIONS: If you have need of a special accommodation, please contact the 4-H Office prior to or when submitting your Adult Registration. If a special accommodation is needed, please fill out and turn in the ADA Request Form by May 17, 2024

HOUSING and SLEEPING ARRANGEMENTS: adult chaperons will be placed in a cabin with other adults of the same sex. Adult chaperons may be required to sleep on a top bunk.

Adult Campers attend Monday 4:00 P.M. June 10, 2024 through Saturday 1:30 P.M., June 15, 2024 and your full-time attendance is required. The 4-H Council is paying adult Camper fees. Not all adult chaperons will need to arrive on Monday, June 10 for the Teen Counselor Day.

If you have any questions, please call the Camp Director, Bill Anderson at 530-864-5572 or the 4-H Office at 530-552-5812

*4-H Camp presents an opportunity for youth to explore and discover individual interests and friends in a safe and inclusive environment. Camp is often a first step toward independence for youth and often plays an important part in development and growth. Independence and confidence are areas of growth that often happen at Camp when parents are not present.

*For teens, it is especially important that to have independence from their parents to allow them to do the job they have been given: working with campers. Your teen has attended meetings and trained for this week and job all year, let them show us what they have learned. If they struggle or need any advice or support, they have their peers, camp directors, and 4-H staff to assist them. We will of course reach out to you and make housing changes as necessary if there is a medical difficulty or emergency, or extreme behavioral difficulty.
