

For 4-H Professionals:

Latino Youth Development 12-Week Online Course 2023

Engaging Latino Youth, Families, and Communities from the Ground Up is a hybrid, 12-week online course for 4-H professionals who work with after school staff or 4-H volunteer educators. The course will help build awareness and skills to engage Latino youth and families in youth development programming.

Virtual Learning

Offering a 12-week program alternating between:

- Self-study with videos and readings.
- Live, 2-hour sessions with presentations, group discussions, and reflection. Held every other Friday, starting January 27.
8am HI | 10am AK
11am PT | 12pm MT
1pm CT | 2pm ET

Content

- Intersectional Identities
- Latinos in the U.S. (Jan. 27)
- Building Relationships with Latino Communities (Feb. 10)
- Organizational Infrastructure to Support Latino Youth Engagement (Feb. 24)
- Program Elements (Mar. 10)
- Conceptual Framework of Effective Latino Youth Serving Organizations (Mar. 24)
- Organizational Change (Apr. 7)

Presenters

Fe Moncloa, PhD

Specializing in Latinx youth development, civic engagement, and culturally relevant pedagogy.
fxmoncloa@ucanr.edu

Claudia Diaz Carrasco, MS

Specializing in Latinx youth development, expanded learning, and UC Mexico Initiative.
cpdiaz@ucanr.edu

Steven Worker, PhD

Specializing in culturally relevant youth development and STEM/science learning.
smworker@ucanr.edu

Register at www.ucanr.edu/LatinoYD

Early Bird: $225 through November 1, 2022
Regular: $300 through December 1, 2022