SIXTH ANNUAL Urban Landscape and Garden Education Expo

Sat. Sept 27 2014

9 am to 2 pm

Activities for the whole family!

Explore the sustainable gardening practices at work in the UCCE Demonstration Landscapes - including rainwater harvesting, low-water plantings, more efficient irrigation, composting, mulching, and environmentally friendly pest control alternatives.

Taste fresh, seasonal fruit grown at the UC ANR South Coast Research & Extension Center.

Listen to presentations by UC experts about more efficient water use and irrigation, plant selection for our local climate, and pest management practices for your home landscape.

Get answers to your landscape questions from UC experts, UCCE Master Gardeners, various industry vendors, and local water agencies.

Hosted by the UC ANR South Coast Research & Extension Center @ 7601 Irvine Blvd in Irvine
