Getting Started in Beef Cattle Workshop Scheduled September 26th

The Tahoe Cattlemen's Association (TCA) and UC Cooperative Extension (UCCE) are co-sponsoring a Getting Started in Beef Cattle workshop at a ranch located in Auburn. The workshop will feature information and demonstrations on: rangeland, irrigated pasture, types of cattle enterprises, breeds, buying and selling cattle, nutrition, reproduction, health, and facilities. There will be a demonstration of a weed wiper that can be used to control smutgrass. The wiper was purchase by TCA and is available for rent.

The workshop will feature presentations from TCA Board of Directors who have been in the cattle business for several years. UCCE Farm Advisor Roger Ingram and former Chief of the California Department of Food and Agriculture's Bureau of Livestock Identification Greg Lawley.

The workshop is free and includes lunch. You can register online at <http://ceplacer.ucanr.edu/?calitem=295545&g=36980> or by calling 530-889-7385.
