QUILTED ENTRY
Choice of Materials & Skills Used	Outstanding combination of fabric and design construction. Entry is stunning and eye catching – great use of color and prints. Learning skills challenged, with respect to years of experience.	Suitable combination of fabric and pattern selection. Entry is attractive and balanced. Difficulty of skills at appropriate level.	Entry has a pleasant appearance, but pattern may not compliment fabric. Colors tend to blend. Skills relatively easy.	Style very simple. Fabrics – prints and/or colors – fight each other. No skills learned.
Construction	Construction will stand up to wear. Construction detail suited to style and fabric. Grain line maintained. Clean and well pressed.	Minor construction flaws which do not affect its overall appearance or durability. Clean and pressed.	Construction flaws show, affecting appearance and durability. Item looks worn.	Construction techniques detract from appearance. Finishing looks rushed or incomplete.
Workmanship	Quilted entry is free from technical and/or design blunders. Seams are straight and without puckers. Corners and points are exact; blocks appear uniform. Thread color perfectly complements the product. Quilt is square.	Quilted entry has minor issues that do not detract from the overall appearance. Points may not be exact and seams may not be uniform but the blocks are attractive and balanced. Thread color is well chosen.	Quilted entry may need attention in a few places. Some of the seams may appear puckered – i.e. the product does not look flat – or the points/ corners may be blunt. Thread color is adequate.	Quilted entry has major technical or design issues that detract from the overall appearance. Seams are skewed. Thread color is distracting. Quilt is not square.
