Our goal is to equip churches to reach kids, and their families, with the gospel of Christ and train them to serve Him. (Learn about the prayer, vision, mission and values of AWANA.) The acronym AWANA comes from the first letters of Approved Workmen Are Not Ashamed as taken from 2 Timothy 2:15.

AWANA facts:

AWANA is centered on the gospel.

Bible memory is a key element of our curriculum.

We use a complete and systematic approach for training kids from preschool to high school to know, love and serve Christ.

Our exclusive circle games generate maximum fun at AWANA meetings.

Training materials fully prepare a local church's volunteer leadership.

Children and youth are also trained to serve.

AWANA missionaries and their ministry teams provide hands-on training opportunities to the local church.

We offer special events as outreach tools and service opportunities for young people and their families and friends.

AWANA programs and materials are designed to influence unsaved parents, too.

Parents are trained to be their children's primary spiritual caregivers through AWANA Children's Ministry Conferences, local training sessions and Rorheim Institute.
