

PLANT AUCTION & CHILI COOKOFF

Wednesday, August 22, 2012

ORANGE COUNTY FAIRGROUNDS

(ENTER ON ARLINGTON DRIVE, GATE #8 - $5.00 PARKING)

Nurseries throughout Southern California are participating. Tens of thousands of dollars of plants and gardening supplies are auctioned by the nursery industry at "give away" prices. Proceeds benefit the OC Ronald McDonald House, UCCE Master Gardeners, Sherman Gardens and Library, horticulture scholarships and research.

CHILI COOK-OFF TEAMS NEEDED!

ENTRY DIVISIONS:

DIVISION #1: TRADITIONAL DIVISION #2: NON-TRADITIONAL

JUDGING: Chili is judged by an impartial panel of judges. All chili tasting will be "blind".

CHILI: Please prepare plenty of chili – we expect 1000+ people.
8 quarts is the minimum – but we would/could use much, much more!

SUPPLIES & EQUIPMENT:

Contestants provide their own crockpot, heating plate, camp stove or other cooking/ heating device. Electricity will be available about 20 feet away – bring your own extension cord if necessary. Contestants bring their own condiments. The organizers will provide an 8' folding table chairs, tasting cups, spoons, etc. You may arrive anytime during the day to set-up and prepare your chili. Chili and booth should be ready for tasting and judging by 5:00 p.m. Gates will open at 5:00 p.m.
