

What is the Department of Water Resources' SGM Technical Assistance Program?

The mission of the SGM Technical Assistance Program is to support Tribes, Underrepresented Communities and Small Farmers within SGMA regulated basins with the assessment of water-related needs, risks and vulnerabilities and to provide focused technical assistance to resolve them.

SERVICES PROVIDED

Ground Level Monitoring

Analyzing long-term water supply and demand

Aquifer Testing

Analyzing and facilitating water transfers

Analyzing well interference

Supporting in funding and grant application processes

Identifying water supplies

Determine fire flow requirements

Analyzing existing groundwater well conditions

Design of water systems including production, treatment, distribution and storage

Rehabilitating and/or Replacement of water storage tanks

Preparation of project plans and specifications