

4-H CELEBRATING FOUR DECADES AND THE RETIREMENT OF RICHARD MAHACEK COUNTY DIRECTOR AND 4-H ADVISOR

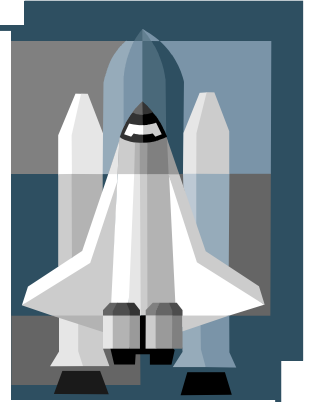

UC
CE

WHEN: SATURDAY JANUARY 7TH,
3 PM TO 8:30 PM

3:00 pm Open house & social
5:30 pm Dinner served
6:00 pm Program
7:00 pm Dessert

WHERE: CASTLE CHALLENGER
SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY
CENTER IN ATWATER, CA

Blasting off to retirement!

THIS IS A CASUAL AFFAIR, SO BRING A FRIEND, GRAB THE KIDS OR GRANDKIDS FOR A DAY OF FUN, REMINISCING, FOOD, AND FRIENDSHIP.

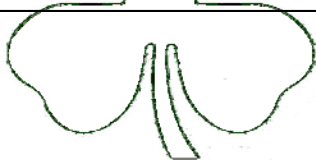

COME FOR SOME OR ALL OF THE ACTIVITIES

- Enjoy special 4-H exhibits and hands-on activities from the past four decades.
- Enjoy appetizers, social time, and the Science and Technology Center exhibits.
- Reminisce about Richard's career with UC Cooperative Extension and 4-H.
- Have dinner, see old friends, make new friends, celebrate the past four decades.
- Relax with desserts and more exhibits, including the "Science on a Sphere"

Make your reservation now.

Adults	$10.00
Ages 9 to 19	$5.00
under 9	$2.00

Reservations can be made by

Phone: (209) 385-7418

Email to: cemarks@ucdavis.edu

Online: <http://ucanr.org/4hcelebratingfourdecades>

Or in person at

UC Cooperative Extension
2145 Wardrobe Avenue
Merced, CA 95341

Reservation payment or donations can be made to Merced County 4-H.
Richard requests no gifts, but donations may be made to Merced County 4-H.
Photos or anecdotes of Richard or 4-H are welcome and can be sent to the contacts above.