Welcome

First...Thanks for your interest in becoming a UC Master Food Preserver Volunteer. Our work, and your desire to join with us, will enable us to continue to teach the research based home food preservation techniques to keep people safe.

Second... Our 2022 training will be divided into two parts. The first will be a series of "lectures" or classroom work; the second will be a series of "labs" to practice what you learned in the classroom.

All 2022 Training sessions will be held at:

Cabral Ag Center
