

What to see and learn in the gardens

Each garden offers something special to see and opportunities to learn things you can apply to your own garden. Master Gardeners and other experts are in each garden to guide you and answer your questions.

Garden	Burlingame	San Mateo North	Foster City	San Mateo South	Belmont	San Carlos	Redwood City
Garden description	5,000ft <sup>2</sup> Flat lot	23,200ft <sup>2</sup> Flat lot	5,700ft <sup>2</sup> Flat lot	5,800ft <sup>2</sup> Flat lot	8,600ft <sup>2</sup> Hillside lot	9,800ft <sup>2</sup> Hillside lot	8,700ft <sup>2</sup> Hillside lot
Conserving Water
Turf substitutes
California native plants
Succulent plants
Irrigation
Pervious paving
Life in the Garden
Beneficial insects
Wildlife-friendly gardening
Integrated pest management
Healthy turf
Nourishing the Soil
Compost
Vermiculture
Sheet mulching
Growing Food
Vegetables
Fruit trees
Special Events
Succulent display
California native plant display
Master Gardener plant sale
Master Gardener info table							