

4-H YOUTH CAMP

Event FAQ – Some aspects may change

WHAT IS 4-H YOUTH CAMP? 4-H Youth Camp is usually held in July or August and runs for 5 days. The camp is held at Camp Tehama in Mill Creek, California. All youth are invited to attend as campers or as teen staff. Each year 4-H Youth Camp has a unique theme that incorporates activities, dress up days and cabin decorations. Activities include singing & skits, hiking & nature, fishing, archery, creek play, team games, crafts and much more!

WHO? All youth, 3rd through 7th grades (as of January 1 of current year), are invited to attend as campers. Bring a friend or meet a new face! Current 4-H membership is not required – this camp is open to all youth in Tehama and surrounding counties. All fees include food, lodging, accident insurance and all activities. Transportation to and from Camp Tehama must be individually arranged. Teens, 8-12th grades (as of January 1st of the current year) can apply to be on camp staff. Camp staff applications are available late January, interviews are held soon after.

RECOGNITION & ADVANCEMENT: Many campers return as teen staff, learning valuable leadership skills. Teens arrive one day earlier and leave one day later than campers, to prepare and clean up the camp.

ASSISTANCE: If you have any questions, please call the 4-H Office, 530-527-3101 or visit:

COUNTY RECORD BOOK JUDGING

Event FAQ – Some aspects may change

WHAT IS RECORD BOOK JUDGING? Since the early 1900's, 4-H Record Book Judging has been an annual competition. Initially, the competitions focused on project skill development, primarily in agricultural areas. Now, 4-H Record Book competitions measure members leadership development, citizenship activities and personal growth as well as project proficiency. 4-H Record Books may be judged at the club, county and state levels. There is no national judging.

4-H Record Books are first reviewed at the local level by 4-H Community Club Leaders and Project Leaders to earn seals. If the member's Record Book earns enough points it may be submitted for county competition (County Record Book Judging). County Record Book Judging usually takes place in the fall.

WHO? To be eligible for County Record Book Judging, a 4-H member must be 9 years old or 4th grade but not yet 19 years old as of January 1 of current year, have been awarded a gold seal on their record book at the Club Level and have received the necessary amount of points on the Eligibility Scorecard for County Record Book Judging.

RECOGNITION & ADVANCEMENT: Books are judged on the member's 4-H work, leadership and citizenship development, and personal growth. Judges provide a critique and suggestions for future growth and involvement. Seals are awarded based on the member's 4-H project work, personal growth and the book's organization. Through their personal achievements and 4-H participation, members may earn Star Rank recognition.

ASSISTANCE: For more information about the 4-H Record Book please visit:

COUNTY PRESENTATION DAY

Event FAQ – Some aspects may change

WHAT IS A PRESENTATION? A presentation is a method used to communicate an idea by showing and/or telling. It can be a demonstration or a talk that uses posters and other visual aids. A 4-H presentation helps you learn to research a subject, organize ideas in a logical order, be a teacher, and practice your public speaking skills. Members may enter in two of the categories listed below.

Available categories are:

- DEMONSTRATION, Individual or Team
- PREPARED or IMPROMPTU SPEECH
- INTERPRETIVE READING
- AUDIO/VISUAL PRESENTATION
- TABLE DISPLAY
- SHARE THE FUN
- CULTURAL ARTS

WHO? All 4-H members should consider attending Presentation Day to share their project knowledge and to improve their public speaking skills. The presentation can be given on any topic and isn't limited to current 4-H project area. 4-H'ers, 7th grade and older, that are not giving presentations are invited to be Room Coordinators. Adults are needed as well to evaluate the presentations. Call the 4-H office to volunteer, 530-527-3101.

RECOGNITION & ADVANCEMENT: All participants will be given a Rotary Presentation Pin of Gold, Blue or Green. Those receiving a Gold or Blue pin qualify to compete at Northern Sectional Presentation Day (check with the 4-H Office for date and location). There will also be a State Presentation Day, at the State 4-H Field Day, usually in May, for those qualifying at the sectional event.

The Presentation Trophy, sponsored by Red Bluff Rotary, is an award given to a 4-H member who has made five or more presentations during the club year. Primary members are also eligible to participate. Each time you give your presentation, you must get verification signatures on the application which is available at the 4-H Office or online at:

http://cetehama.ucdavis.edu/4-H_Program/Forms/. The trophy will be presented at County 4-H Awards Night in the Fall.

ASSISTANCE: The publication "4-H Presentation Manual" will help you plan an award winning presentation. FAVORITE FOODS DAY

Event FAQ – Some aspects may change

WHAT IS FAVORITE FOODS DAY? Do you have a favorite food? Share it with others at the annual Favorite Foods Day! The event includes planning a menu featuring your favorite food as an item, selecting a theme, and setting a table for one. Participants will be judged on their appearance (appropriate dress, knowledge, and confidence), the menu's color, texture and nutritional value; the appropriateness of their table setting and arrangement; and the quality of their favorite food (texture, flavor, and eye appeal). The table setting must include all of the tableware (dishes, utensils, and flatware) for serving all of the foods listed on the participant's menu card for one person.

WHO? All 4-H Members, including Primary Members, are encouraged to participate, even if they are not currently in a cooking project. Adults are also encouraged to participate by entering a dish using the showcased ingredient; the adult division does not require a table setting or a menu. Non-participating 4-Hers are invited to attend to view fellow 4-Hers' entries.

RECOGNITION & ADVANCEMENT: There will be awards for junior, intermediate, and senior divisions. In addition, special cash awards will be given to the best beef, lamb, pork, poultry, olives, rice, prune and almond/walnut dishes. Primary members (Kindergarten through 3rd grades) will receive a special participation ribbon.

ASSISTANCE: Entry form and information packets are available online or in the 4-H Office as the event gets nearer. You may call the 4-H Office, 530-527-3101 or visit: http://cetehama.ucdavis.edu/4-H_Program/4-H_Events/

COUNTY FASHION REVUE

Event FAQ – Some aspects may change

WHAT IS FASHION REVUE? Be a model for a day! Members sew, buy, or put together an outfit, present the outfit to a panel of judges for a formal interview and then model their outfit for everyone at the Fashion Revue show!

Goals:

- Build self-confidence and poise by developing self-concept and the ability to make the most of one's personal attributes.
- Develop judgment and creativity in planning an attractive ensemble that expresses their individual lifestyle.
- Gain consumer skills in making and purchasing clothing and accessories and in purchasing and using equipment related to clothing construction and care.
- Provide recognition to youth achieving these goals.

WHO? All 4-H members (4th grade and older) enrolled in the clothing project are eligible to compete in any division. 4-Her's (4th grade and older) not enrolled in clothing may compete in the "What's Your Pleasure/Purchased", "Team", "Anything Goes", "Recycled" and "State Challenge" categories. Divisions may change from year to year. Primary members may participate in the "Anything Goes" category. A 4-Her is limited to one entry per division and no more than two divisions.

RECOGNITION & ADVANCEMENT: Everyone will receive recognition for participating in the Fashion Revue. Primary members and all other participants in the "Anything Goes" division will receive participation ribbons. Other awards participants could receive are trophies, ribbons and hat pins. Top winning entrants in each division are called "County Winners". County Winners are eligible to participate in the State 4-H Fashion Revue in May. COUNTY LIVESTOCK JUDGING

WHAT IS LIVESTOCK JUDGING?

The day begins with registration where participants are given a set of judging cards or score sheet. On these sheets members note their results of classes. Usually classes are the large animal species like cattle, sheep, goats, pigs, horses and sometimes other classes will be in the mix such as dairy goats/cattle, feeds, fencing, rations, or small animals like rabbits, poultry, and cavy. In addition to judging these classes all participants will give a judge a set of oral reasons on a class of their choosing. Oral reasons are judged by how well the member communicates in giving their reasons why they placed the class in the order they did. Scores are then tallied and awards are given.

WHO?

All 4-H members, leaders and parents are invited to attend Livestock Judging Day. This event would especially be good for members taking a market animal to fair. Junior, Intermediate and Senior divisions as well as divisions for adults and Primary Members, (Kindergarten through 3rd grades), are available. Usually there are separate classes for the Primary Members.

RECOGNITION & ADVANCEMENT:

Primary Members will receive participation hat pins sponsored by Cheryl Klarenbach of Corning 4-H. All other youth divisions could receive hat pins, trophies and ribbons. The Adults win bragging rights!

COUNTY STILL EXHIBITS FAIR

Event FAQ – Some aspects may change

WHAT ARE STILL EXHIBITS? The 4-H Still Exhibits Fair is an annual event that provides 4-H Members the opportunity to display the results of their project work indicating achievement and growth. This event is an excellent way to prepare for the Tehama District Fair. Every project can be entered in this event. You can enter a craft that you created, a cake you decorated, or create a “science project” type board showing how you made your hog waterer or where you give shots to a cat. This daylong event includes a check in time that you will drop your exhibit off, and a simple awards ceremony where the top winning entrants will be recognized. There is a viewing time after judging for all participants can view the entries and awards.

WHO? All 4-H members may exhibit and participate at the 4-H Still Exhibits Fair. Primary 4-H'ers, Kindergarten - 3rd Grades, may show in the Primary Division only. All members should take the time to show (and possibly be rewarded) for their project work. There are divisions for just about every project, if you do not know where your exhibit would work, contact your project leader or the 4-H Office for assistance.

RECOGNITION & ADVANCEMENT: ALL Still Exhibits, (4th grade and above) will receive a ribbon award. The Danish System of Judging will be used with blue, red or white ribbons awarded. A pin may be awarded to the best exhibit in each class. A Still Exhibits Sweepstakes and Reserve Sweepstakes award will be awarded to the 4-H'er with the greatest number of points from exhibits. Primary Members will receive participation ribbons.

ASSISTANCE: The 4-H Still Exhibits Fair Premium Book will provide you with class descriptions, entry form and exhibit tags. The book is available at the 4-H Office or online at <http://cetehama.ucdavis.edu/4-H Program/4-H Events/>. Please call the 4-H Office, 530-527-3101 for more information.
