

FREE CLASS FOR SPANISH SPEAKING LANDSCAPERS!

Three DPR accreditation hours have been approved.

January 29, 2014

University of California Division of Agriculture and Natural Resources and the California Dept. of Pesticide Regulations are proud to offer a free class for Spanish speaking landscapers at the CLCA Industry Show at the LA L.A. Convention Center South Hall 1201 S. Figueroa Street, Los Angeles CA 90015

‘Practical Pest Prevention and Management in the Landscape’

9-11 AM: Best Management Practices to Prevent Pests (Chaz Perea, Landscape Manager at Dodger Stadium)

11-12 noon: Pesticide Use and Safety (Lisa Blecker, Pesticide Safety Education Coordinator and UC ANR Pesticide Coordinator)

The workshop is open to all Spanish speakers employed in both the public and private sector. All attendees will receive a certificate of completion at the end of the class.

To register, <http://www.clca.org/lis/>

Questions? Call Janet Hartin at 951.313.2023