

Placer County Master Gardeners

7TH ANNUAL

GARDENERS' GATHERING

Saturday, March 1, 2014 ▪ 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

At the historic Blue Goose Fruit Shed, 3550 Taylor Road, Loomis
$30.00 (includes lunch)

“Cacti and Succulents—I ain’t killed ‘er yet”

Donn Reiners, Horticulturist and Photographer

A photographic essay of cacti and succulents

“Inspiration for Sharing Your Garden with Wildlife”

Janet Thew, Volunteer Habitat Ambassador for National Wildlife Federation

The five important features of creating a critter-friendly landscape

“Creating Bird-Friendly Landscapes”

Nancy Gilbert, Education Chair, Redbud Chapter of CA Native Plant Society and Co-owner of Far West Bulb Farm

How to create varied habitats and elements in your garden that will attract and support wild birds

“Top Ten Veggie Growing Tips”

Kevin Marini, Master Gardener Programs Manager, UCCE Placer and Nevada Counties

Veggie gardening do’s and don’ts – compiled from a decade of answering veggie questions.

“Water and the New California Landscape”

Cheryl Buckwalter, Executive Director, EcoLandscape California; Designer & Consultant, Landscape Liaisons

An integrated approach to creating attractive landscapes for the efficient use and management of our resources—especially water

Plus Information and Exhibits

Ask a Master Gardener, Master Composters, Master Food Preservers,
UC Agriculture and Natural Resources, PCWA, Placer Local Food Alliance,
Gold Country Wildlife Rescue, The Xerces Society for Invertebrate Conservation

Advance Reservations Required

Only 145 Seats Available: Registration begins February 3

Online at <http://pcmg.ucanr.org> (with credit card) or

In person at the UCCE office in Auburn (cash or check)

Located at 11477 E Avenue (Dewitt Center)

For information, call the Placer County Master Gardener’s Hotline at 530-889-7388.