

Discover Fall at the UCI Arboretum

Saturday, November 7

8:30 am – 2:00 pm

In collaboration with the UCI Arboretum and the UC Natural Reserve System's San Joaquin Marsh

Arboretum Walking Tour 9am-10am

Stroll around the Arboretum and discover the beauty of plants from the California Floristic Province in addition to an extensive collection of South African species, particularly Aloes and South African bulb species.

Ask a Master Gardener 9am-11:30am

Stop by the UCCE Master Gardener booth and meet part of the Hotline Team. Ask them your tough gardening questions and let them help you to solve some of the mysteries of your garden.

* Gardening in Small Spaces 10:15am-11:15am

Join the Master Gardeners as they address the pleasures and challenges of gardening in limited spaces. From containers to raised beds to vertical gardens, they will help you discover your path to successful gardening.

* Water-Wise Gardening 11:30am-12:30pm

Learn how to plant and water to make the most of limited water resources and to provide the best care for a healthy and productive garden. Get acquainted with irrigation systems, hydrozoning, and much more.

San Joaquin Marsh Walking Tour 1 pm-2 pm

Join this guided tour to explore the home of a vast variety of plant and animal species. The Marsh is a remnant wetland on a filled canyon of the Santa Ana River.

Seminars are free; space is limited. Call 714-963-0228 or email mg.arboretum.openhouse@gmail.com for reservations.*
