

SAVE THE DATE

Salinas River Symposium: Reconnecting the River

JANUARY 22

8:00 AM – 4:00 PM

Key policy makers, scientists, educators and stakeholders will be converging at the Paso Robles Inn to share information and ideas.

Confirmed speakers to date:

- Lisa Thompson, Chief Scientist with Regional San
- Rob Atwill, Director, Veterinary Medicine Extension, UC Davis
- Royce Larsen, Watershed / Natural Resource Advisor, UC Cooperative Extension
- Jennifer Beringer, The Nature Conservancy
- Ken Tate, Rustici Rangeland Watershed Specialist, UC Davis
- Samuel Sandoval Solis, Assistant Professor and Cooperative Extension Specialist in Water Resources, UC Davis

■ See the amazing Waterways GIS presentation by Peter McDonald, Dean of Library Services, CSU Fresno

■ MC and Facilitator – Dr. Doug Piirto, Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo Natural Resource Management & Environmental Sciences

■ Brainstorming/Futuring Session

PLEASE FORWARD TO A FRIEND OR COLLEAGUE AND WATCH FOR THE FULL REGISTRATION FLYER, COMING SOON.

SPONSORS: Upper Salinas-Las Tablas Resource Conservation District

San Luis Obispo County Supervisors Frank Mecham, Bruce Gibson, and Debbie Arnold

Presented by

ECOLOGISTICS

REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN

Salinas River Symposium: Reconnecting the River

Key policy makers, scientists, educators and stakeholders will be converging at the Paso Robles Inn to share information and ideas.

Presented by

ECOLOGISTICS

JANUARY 22

8:00 AM – 4:00 PM

Paso Robles Inn
1103 Spring Street

- Overview of the Salinas River Watershed
- Effect of Drought and Climate Change on Central Coast Steelhead
- Sustaining Livestock Production and Clean Water on Rangeland Watersheds
- Streamflow and Sediment Composition and Ecosystem Functions
- Microbial Water Quality and Produce Safety
- Panel on Managing the Salinas River Floodplain
- Where History and Technology Meet: a presentation of the Waterways Geoportal
- $115 per person, includes full breakfast and lunch. Discounts available for multiple attendees from the same agency.
- For full program, schedule of presentations, speaker details, and to register please go to: <http://www.ecologistics.org/salinasriver/>
- Discounted group hotel rates are available at the Paso Robles Inn. Information available on our web site.

SPONSORS:

Upper Salinas-Las Tablas Resource Conservation District
Abalone Coast Analytical

San Luis Obispo County Supervisors Frank Mecham, Bruce Gibson, and Debbie Arnold