■ 4-H Youth Development Program

2018-19 Santa Clara County 4-H Ambassador Application

What is a Santa Clara County 4-H Ambassador?

Sponsored by the Santa Clara County 4-H council, Santa Clara County 4-H Ambassadors (formerly known as All Stars) are liaisons between the county 4-H office, 4-H members, 4-H volunteers, and the public. Santa Clara County 4-H Ambassadors visit 4-H clubs in their county; network with other organizations within the community; and represent their county at the annual 4-H State Leadership Conference. Participation in other 4-H county, sectional, and statewide meetings and activities may vary. Santa Clara County 4-H Ambassadors act as visible role models for their fellow 4-H members, their county, their community, and state.

Why does 4-H have County Ambassadors, & where do they fit with the rest of 4-H?

The Santa Clara County 4-H Ambassadors rank not only recognizes a member's leadership abilities, but it is also a working honor that provides 4-H members the opportunity to serve the University of California 4-H Youth Development Program. The Santa Clara County 4-H Ambassador position is one of the highest youth service-learning opportunities and recognitions attainable in the Santa Clara County 4-H Youth Development Program. Santa Clara County 4-H Ambassadors are youth who have excelled in the areas of leadership and service learning; and have been selected to serve the 4-H Youth Development Program in roles that promote leadership through education and service.

For more information: County Ambassador Handbook

Santa Clara County 4-H Ambassadors are selected to:

- Act as Santa Clara County 4-H Ambassadors to various local and county programs and activities; including public presentations, workshops and leadership development opportunities.
- Coordinate, plan and implement the Santa Clara County 4-H Leadership Overnight Conference.
- Advance positive youth development through the adoption of a significant service learning project that makes county-wide impact over the course of the service term.
- Represent Santa Clara County at the annual 4-H State Leadership Conference.
- Provide input to the 4-H Advisor to shape the future of the Santa Clara County 4-H ambassador program, and assure it continues to meet the needs of the Santa Clara County 4-H Youth Development Program.

Term:

- Santa Clara County 4-H Ambassadors are expected to make a 12-month commitment to the program beginning June 2018 & ending in June 2019.
- Santa Clara County 4-H Ambassadors are required to commit significant time to the work of being a County 4-H Ambassador. In general, 4-H Ambassadors spend 10-40 hours per month, not including travel time, performing the tasks of their role. 4-H Ambassadors are expected to make this an important priority for the length of their term. It is critical that candidates reflect on their schedules and existing commitments before accepting the position of County 4-H Ambassador.

SECTION B – SANTA CLARA COUNTY 4-H AMBASSADOR AGREEMENT

I understand that if I am selected as a 4-H Ambassador, I will have many obligations, including the following:

- Serve as the ambassador and role model of the 4-H Youth Development Program in Santa Clara County
- Represent Santa Clara County at the annual 4-H State Leadership Conference
- Be a key leader in the planning and implementation of Santa Clara County’s 2019 4-H Leadership Overnight (LON) Conference
- Attend regular County 4-H Ambassador team meetings (usually monthly)
- Complete a year-long ambassador team service-learning project, which will benefit Santa Clara County 4-H
- Attend County Council meetings (held the 2nd Tuesday of each month beginning at 7:15) to lead the flag salute and give a County Ambassador report
- Install board officers for various 4-H clubs within the county as requested
- Install County Council officers
- Enroll in the Leadership Project offered by my club (or another club in Santa Clara County)
- Plan and set up the Santa Clara County 4-H Ambassador display at the Santa Clara County Fair
- Plan the 2018 Fair Dance, this includes: arranging for location, music, invitations, and refreshments.
- Set up and complete outreach at the County 4-H Ambassador table at the Harvest Festival held at Prusch Park and at Martial Cottle Park in October. Also, at the Martial Cottle Spring Festival in May.
- Assist and/or present awards at county events as requested by event organizers (e.g. Favorite Foods Day, Presentation Day, Fashion Revue, and Awards Night)
- Plan the 2019 County 4-H Ambassador Application, Interviews, and 4-H Ambassador Induction Banquet

I realize that as a Santa Clara County 4-H Ambassador:

- I must exhibit exemplary behavior, be respectful to all, not use any foul or abusive language or gestures, be a role model, and display a positive attitude. Possession or use of illegal drugs or alcohol, theft or vandalism at any 4-H event or function is unacceptable behavior and may result in my suspension from the 4-H program.
- I may have to reduce my involvement in other activities - if they conflict with my 4-H Ambassador role.
- Extensive travel throughout the county/state will most likely be necessary.
- The role of County Ambassador is a working position of honor. I will represent my county in all that I do.

As a Santa Clara County 4-H Ambassador applicant, I realize that if I become a County 4-H Ambassador, I will assume the above obligations to fulfill to the best of my abilities.

As a PARENT of an County 4-H Ambassador applicant, I have read the above and understand all the requirements and obligations that my child will have as an County 4-H Ambassador if selected. I realize I may be called upon to assist with transportation and host meetings at my home. The Ambassador position is rewarding, but it is also time-consuming and sometimes stressful. I realize my child will need as much support as I can offer.
