

19th Annual
IPM Seminar for Mendocino & Lake
 Hopland Research and Extension Center
 Rod Shippey Facility
 Friday, November 18, 2016

8:00 a.m. Welcome Jim Xerogeanes, Mendocino College Ag Dept.	12:00 p.m. LUNCH (Sponsored by Duarte Nursery)
8:05 a.m. Laws and Regulations Update: -Pesticide use around schools -Elements of a violation -New worker protection regulations	1:00 p.m. John Duarte, Duarte Nursery, Hughson, CA. – New Approaches to Vineyard Planting to Address Disease and Pest
9:05 a.m. Dr. Walt Mahafee, USDA/Dept. of Botany and Plant Pathology, Oregon State University. -Powdery Mildew: Adjusting application interval and managing resistance.	1:45 p.m. Dr. Frank Zalom, UC Department of Entomology -Grapevine Red Blotch Disease Transmission by the Three Cornered Alfalfa Leafhopper
10:00 a.m. Greg Giusti, UCCE Mendocino and Lake Counties. -Adventures in Wildlife: Trapping Gophers for Fun and Profit.	2:30 p.m. Dr. Andrew Sutherland UCCE Bay Area IPM Advisor, Alameda County. –IPM for Outdoor Nuisance Cockroaches (including two species new to Mendocino County.
10:30 BREAK	3:30 p.m. BREAK
10:45 a.m. Dave Koball, UC Hopland Research and Extension Center -Options for Mechanical Weed Control in Vineyards	3:45 p.m. Dr Houston Wilson, UC Berkeley Department of Environmental Science Policy and Management -Update on Biological Control of Virginia Creeper Leafhopper.
11:15 a.m. Monica Cooper, UCCE Napa County -European Grapevine Moth Update; Biocontrol of Olive Fruit Fly; and Erineum Mites-Vector of Pinot Gris Virus.	4:30 p.m. Glenn McGourty, UCCE Mendocino and Lake Counties -Plant Microbiomes and Importance in Vineyard Pest Management -Adjourn and Closing Remarks

* 7.0 CE Hours (1 law, 6 other) as determined by the California Department of Food and Agriculture.

Sponsors:
 DUARTE NURSERY

