

Volunteer at the UCSC Farm

Join the UCSC Farm & Garden Outreach Team

Seven Training Sessions
March 11 - April 22
Mondays 5:30 - 7:30 PM

$25 materials fee
$5 for UCSC students
(payable following the first session)

The UCSC Farm, managed by the Center for Agroecology and Sustainable Food Systems at UC Santa Cruz, welcomes participants to the 2019 Volunteer Docent Training Session.

Our volunteer docents learn:

- Basic concepts and practices of organic farming and gardening
- History of gardening and farming at UCSC
- Social justice in relation to the food system
- Educational programs of the UCSC Farm & Garden
- On-farm research projects and dissemination
- So much more!

Docents take part in:

- Leading tours of the UCSC Farm
- Assisting with community events
- Ongoing enrichment activities

Join the UCSC Farm Docent Program today!

Get more information & RSVP by March 6 to:
Heidi Harris, hharris2@ucsc.edu, 831 459 3762

Learn more at casfs.ucsc.edu

UC SANTA CRUZ
FARM & GARDEN