

Project Learning Tree Curriculum Resources: Building Student Understanding of Fire Events K-12 Educator Workshop

Community Soil Foundation , Larkfield-Wikiup, CA 95403

July 17, 2019 9 am – 3:30 pm

Join us to explore the wonders of environmental topics such as Oak Woodland Ecosystem and Restoration through Project Learning Tree field activities

Location: Community Soil Foundation Larkfield Community Garden, 450 Noonan Ranch Ln, Larkfield-Wikiup, CA 95403

Day and Time: Wednesday, July 17, 2019 Start at 9 am at Larkfield Community Garden/ End at 3:30 pm.

Cost: $ 25.00 registration fee includes:

- Full day training and free Project Learning Tree K8 Guide (other PLT guides available)
- Opportunity to order free Education and Environment Initiative Curriculum unit <https://californiaeei.org/abouteei/>

Participants will:

- Receive a free Project Learning Tree K8 Guide with over 90 activities, EEI curriculum unit(s), and access to online FireWorks Curriculum
- Learn how Project Learning Tree can engage students in outdoor field studies
- Explore the Oak Woodland community of Community Soil Foundation with field naturalist
- Learn an introduction to NGSS (new science standards) and Environmental Principles and Concepts (EP&Cs)
- Be certified as a Project Learning Tree educator and gain access to online resources

Questions or more information on Project Learning Tree:

Sandy Derby stderby@ucanr.edu

Online registration open until July 10th , 2019

<http://ucanr.edu/edwshopcsf>

