

Sierra Nevada FireWorks Curriculum Training

CURIOUS HOW TO TEACH ABOUT WILDFIRE IN YOUR CLASSROOM?

The FireWorks Curriculum covers the physical science of combustion, fire history, successions, and fire effects on plants and animals with lessons for elementary, middle, and high school, so you can feel confident teaching about wildfire.

When

Thursday and Friday
August 1 & 2
10 am Thursday- 5 pm
Friday

Where

Blodgett Forest Research Station
4501 Blodgett Forest RD
Georgetown, CA 95634

Cost

$150 including room & board.
$20 for teachers serving low-income areas, while funds are available.

Registration open June 7 at : <http://bit.ly/FireCurriculum>

Questions? Contact Ali Stefancich, astefancich@ucanr.edu (530)639-8807