Hesperia Summer Meals kick off 2019

Strength in numbers.....Encourage cross collaboration with our programs

In San Bernardino County we are working to support the other Cooperative Extension programs by attending events together. Our programs may have different goals, but we also share a common interest....

COMMUNITY EDUCATION

Agriculture and Natural Resources

■ UC Master Food Preserver Program

How can Master Food Preservers support other programs?

Be a guest speaker

Have regular update meetings with all programs

Host a make and take demonstration (Freezer Jam / Pickling)

Advertise Cooperative Extension programs at events

Preserve Today....Relish Tomorrow

As Master Food Preservers we have a unique set of skills to empower people. We have an opportunity to educate our community on practices that many have not had exposure to, or just a refresher for the experienced canner. Our education message can be shaped to cover many issues...Personal fulfillment, Healthy eating, Food Security.

We partnered up with one of our program partners to provide an activity for a group of high school students who had just completed the SLEWS program (student and landowner education and watershed). We provided

Huerta Del Valle Community Garden Refrigerator Pickles
