

Sudden Oak Death Workshop for Tree Care Professionals

These workshops will focus on the biology, history, regulations, management, and new diagnostics for SOD. The intended audience is tree care professionals, government and NGO employees, and managers and docents of open space districts, parks, and educational programs. ISA CEUs applied for.

Monday, November 18, 2019 from 10am-3pm,

UCCE Cooperative Office, 133 Aviation Blvd #109, Santa Rosa

REGISTER HERE: ucanr.edu/SODTrainingWorkshopSantaRosa

Tuesday, November 19, 2019 from 10am-3pm,

Mendocino Coast Botanical Gardens, 18220 CA-1, Fort Bragg

REGISTER HERE: ucanr.edu/SODTrainingWorkshopFortBragg

Questions or need to cancel? For all events, contact Kerry at kwininger@ucanr.edu
For information on SOD, meeting schedules, & disease distribution maps visit www.sodblitz.org

Hosted by the UC Master Gardener Program of Sonoma County Sudden Oak Death Specialists.
Thanks to the USDA Forest Service for program funding.