

United States Department of Agriculture

In partnership with West Fresno Family Resource Center (WFFRC)

BLACK FARMER CONFERENCE
WITH URBAN FARMERS

GROWING TOGETHER

Saturday

February 29, 2020
7:30 AM - 3:00 PM

Maxie Parks Community Center
1802 E. California
Fresno, CA 93706

This one-day statewide conference will be a great opportunity for farmers and ranchers to network and learn about resources available to them. Workshops will cover four topics:

- 1) Access to capital and business resources;
- 2) Youth in agriculture;
- 3) Resources from USDA agencies; and
- 4) An urban leadership roundtable.

Seasoned farmers will share with us their tips for success.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Dr. John W. Boyd Jr.
Founder and President, National Black Farmers Association

OPENING CEREMONY

Carlos Suarez
CA State Conservationist, Natural Resources Conservation Service

Connie Conway
CA State Director, Farm Service Agency

FEATURED SPEAKER

David DeLuz
Director, Strategic Initiatives and Development, California School Boards Association (CSBA)

Conference Registration Website:

WWW.WFRESNOFRC.ORG or call 559.621.2961

For more information please contact

Yolanda Randels, Executive Director West Fresno Family Resource Center
yrandels@wfresnofrc.org

USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer, and lender.