Workshop

KATHERINE E. SOULE, PH.D.

Katherine E. Soule, Ph.D. is the Assistant Vice Provost of the University of California Cooperative Extension and youth, families, & communities advisor in San Luis Obispo and Santa Barbara Counties. She brings a passion for professional development, inclusion, and positive youth development. Katherine is also on the Board of Directors for the Gala Pride and Diversity Center.

Our Diversity and Inclusion committee is working on educational opportunities for our members and community.

We are so excited to have Katherine E. Soule, PH.D. join us in presenting an Inclusive Language Workshop for anyone providing services or education to parents and families.

This is FREE for CCCN Members. This is a great opportunity to learn more about gender, gender affirming care, LGBTQ+ families, why language matters, and receive support to guide you through more inclusive intake forms.
