

MARK YOUR CALENDARS

California Cherry Research Review

Featuring presentations on annually funded research

When: Thursday, February 3 2022 at 8:50 AM

Where: San Joaquin County Agricultural Commissioner
2101 E. Earhart Avenue, Stockton, California 95206

RSVP: Email Anne Estrada at anne@agamsi.com
(only those who RSVP will be admitted)

Lunch provided | CDPR CE credits available

Sponsored By

CALIFORNIA
C H E R R I E S

(916) 441-1063 | info@calcherry.com
1521 I Street, Sacramento, CA 95814

CALIFORNIA CHERRY RESEARCH REVIEW
February 3, 2022

Evelyn Costa Assembly Rooms 1 & 2
San Joaquin County – Office of the Agricultural Commissioner
2101 E Earhart Avenue #100, Stockton, CA 95206

Sponsored by the California Cherry Board and University of California

- 8:00 Registration – Only those who RSVP will be able to attend
- 8:50 Welcome
- PRESENTATIONS ON ANNUAL AND FINAL REPORTS*
- 9:00 The investigation into dormancy breaking agents and the dynamic chill portions model in CA cherries via carbohydrates and solar radiation
Giulia Marino, UCCE Orchard Systems Advisor, Dept. of Land, Air & Water Resources, UC Davis
- 9:20 Development of nutrient budget and nutrient demand model for nitrogen management in cherry
Patrick Brown, Dept. of Plant Sciences, UC Davis
- 9:40 Developing a low-cost, low-tech assay for identification of commonly grown sweet cherry varieties in California, Li Tian, Department of Plant Sciences, UC Davis
- 10:00 Cherry whole orchard recycling: investigating fruiting bodies viability of cherry fungal pathogens.
Mohamed Nouri, UCCE Orchard Systems Advisor, San Joaquin County
- 10:25 Break
- 10:40 Exploring new and alternative insecticides for resistance management of spotted wing drosophila
Jhalendra Rijal, UCCE IPM Advisor, Statewide
- 11:05 Improving the sanitary status of sweet cherry planting material
Florent Trouillas, UCCE Pathologist, Dept. of Plant Pathology, UC Davis
- 11:30 Management and epidemiology of pre- and postharvest diseases of sweet cherry
Jim Adaskaveg, Professor, Dept. of Plant Pathology, UC Riverside
- 12:00 Questions
- 12:15 Lunch