2023 Grazing Demo and Pasture Walk

We Invite You to Join Us for Presentations,
Animal Impact Demonstration and discussions on Ecosystem Process and Grassland Ecology

Saturday – March 25, 2023

McKenzie Table Mountain Preserve
22477 Auberry Road, Clovis, CA 93619

Gates Open at 8:30 AM with a Start Time at 9 AM Sharp!

We welcome you to participate in a day of interaction with fellow producers and Rancher-to-Rancher to discuss the financial and ecological benefits of planned grazing and animal impact with herd effect in the Sierra Foothills. Presenters Kent Reeves and Billy Freeman will lead the group in discussing livestock management practices that can enhance ranch economics and the ecosystem processes that sustain us. A stockmanship and high-density animal impact demonstration will highlight the benefits of Planned Grazing Implementation. Following a free provided lunch, visitors are encouraged to stay for an informal reflection and wrap-up with SFC staff and presenters.

Please RSVP for this event by March 12th

RSVP at by emailing allyson@sierrafoothill.org so we can have an accurate count for the provided lunch
