Lora Carey

Large Animal:
Three people have agreed to share leadership of the County Goat
Committee; they are:
Mallory Curtis
Rhonda Kost
Sarah Pence

The large animal Goat Committee has oversight of all Dairy and Meat Goat Projects in the County. The committee is also responsible for running the Fair shows for those two species.

Note that Pygmy Goats are actually small animals and have a separate committee.

The Fair Awards Committee has published the list of all Fair Awards in the September Timely Topics.

There is also an article in Timely Topics on the winners of the Cattlewomen's Association Carcass Contest winners. There were 7 steers that met the quality and market criteria; 6 of them, including the first three places, were 4-H'ers.

HANS Toensfeldt

Small Animal:
It appears that we will be having a Fair next summer.

Ongoing Business

clean up of Steve the storage container September 22, 9 am

Mega Field Day

John submitted a request to Prusch Park to have a Clover Foundation to have a table there at the Harvest Festival

If we rent tables from Prusch Park, it could cost about $400.

MSC to spend up to $600 for renting tables and chairs fro Prusch Park

next meeting 3PM september 22

Clubs need to get ready to participate in the event.

SMARGE Animal Field Day

Nothing new yet

State Leaders Forum 2007

Basket and wine we have, now we need CHOCOLATE to fill it.

New Business

listserv for people not in 4-H: how to start it up.

county-wide Goat project: for people who are interested in Goats, but don't have a goat.

September 19th, at Sarah Pence's house. First meeting.

County-wide projects: getting information out to the county via the scc4h.org website, contact Gary Lang to get that set up.

NC Sectional Meeting here in Berger Dr. auditorium. 8:30 am for youth council meeting, 9:30 am for full council meeting.

We need to get complete roster of reps to NC Sectional meetings.

Thank you note from Bob Towle: Volunteer of Excellence award.

invitation to the Coyote Grange: a speaker from Pacific Legal Foundation, Property rights, etc.

Joey Gadd was asking about the Welcome signage: Can 4-H get their part of any existing signs welcoming people to the various jurisdictions in the county?

Fair book needs to be done November 31, which Hans is working on now.

Stills needs to get straightened out as it exists in the book.

9:35 PM Adjourn meeting

Respectfully submitted,

Gary Lang
