

GRAPE DAY 2011
UC Kearney Research and Extension Center
Parlier, CA

August 16, 2011
7:30 am – 12:00 pm
$10/person includes: refreshments, meeting and proceeding

Registration: 7:30 am-8:00 am

Program: 8:00 am-12:00 pm

Field tours:

Understanding water use of grapevines
Using the 'Paso Panel' to aid in irrigation scheduling
New wine grape varieties for the San Joaquin Valley
The development of new grape rootstocks for the San Joaquin Valley

Classroom presentations:

Trapping and baiting for gopher control in vineyards
Critical weed free periods in vineyard development
Fruitfulness of DOV raisin cultivars

ONLINE REGISTRATION: <http://ucanr.org/grape-day>

Contact: Matthew Fidelibus at (559) 646-6500