

Oaks of the Central Sierra: Care & Preservation

LEARN ABOUT:

- Oak Ecology
- Landscape Values
- Landscaping Practices
- Why Oaks Need “Protection”

Thursday, August 15th, 6 p.m. – 8 p.m.
Veterans Memorial Bldg
130 Placerville Drive, Placerville

Saturday, August 24th, 10 a.m. – noon
UC Cooperative Extension Office
12200B Airport Road, Jackson

Thursday, August 29th, 7 p.m. - 9 p.m.
Tuolumne County Ambulance Bldg
18440 Striker Court, Sonora

Oaks support over 300 species of animals and more species of butterflies and moths than any other plant!

UC Statewide IPM Project
© 2000 Regents, University of California

University of California
Agriculture and Natural Resources

Presented by UCCE Central Sierra
Funded by Renewable Resources Extension Act

For more information visit

<http://cecentralsierra.ucanr.edu> or 209-533-6993

Making a Difference for California

