

2022 IREC Field Day Agenda
Thursday, July 28th
UC Intermountain REC
2816 Havlina Rd, Tulelake CA 96134

- 8:15 am            Registration Opens
- 8:40 am            Introductions and Opening Remarks
Rob Wilson, IREC Center Director/Farm Advisor, Tulelake
- 9:00 am    Stop 1            Fallow Field Management- Weeds, Nutrients, Benefits/Pitfalls
Rob Wilson, Darrin Culp, and Thomas Getts, UCCE
- 9:20 am    Stop 2            UC Davis Triticale Development- Does 12 tons of forage per acre sound good?
Dr. Josh Hegarty, UC Davis Wheat Breeding
- 9:40 am    Stop 3            Onion Research Projects- Maggots & Drip vs Sprinkler Irrigation
Rob Wilson, IREC Center Director, Tulelake
- 9:50 am    Stop 4            Potato Research Projects- Black Dot, PoX-C, and Powdery scab
Rob Wilson, IREC Center Director & Brian Charlton, OSU KBREC
- 10:05 am    Break
- 10:15 am    Stop 5            Alfalfa Variety Development and Managing Alfalfa during Drought
Dr. Dan Putnam, Forage Specialist, UC Davis
- 10:35 am    Stop 6            Updates on Perennial Grass Research
Dr. Charlie Brummer, Director and Professor for Plant Breeding, UC Davis
- 11:00 am    Indoor            Grasshopper Control and Impacts in the Intermountain Region
Tom Getts, Weed Ecology and Cropping Systems Advisor, Susanville, CA
- 11:15 am    Indoor            Insect Management in Alfalfa
Dr. Ian Grettenberger, UC Davis Entomology Specialist
- 11:35 am    Indoor            Drought and Water Curtailment throughout Siskiyou County
Giuliano Galdi and Rob Wilson, Siskiyou UCCE
- 12:00 pm            Catered Lunch