

2025 Seedling Varieties and Cost

Tomatoes: $5.00 per pot

- Super San Marzano – Indeterminate. Excellent for tomato paste or salsa
- Dwarf Pink Passion – Determinate. Vigorous plant. A good producer of medium sized tomatoes.
- Stupice – Indeterminate. Cold tolerant, produces small tomatoes. A short season selection.
- Indigo Rose – Indeterminate. Dark purple tomatoes that are about 2 inches in diameter. Best taste is with very ripe tomatoes.

Peppers: $5.00 per pot

- Carmen Sweet Pepper – Sweet Italian type pepper
- Ancho Poblano Hot Pepper – Turns red when fully ripe. When picked green they are mild

Pumpkin and Squash: $5.00 per pot

- Baby Pam Pumpkin – Productive plants. OK for carving but best tasting pumpkin, for pies.
- Gold Nugget Hubbard Squash – A bush squash that is pumpkin shaped and good storing.
- Emerald Delight Zucchini – A high producing Zucchini. Edible flowers
- Bush Delicata Winter Squash – A bush type squash that is striped. Good Storage.
- Beginners Green Tint Scallop Squash – Patty pan. Harvest frequently for maximum production.
- Chiffon zucchini – A fast producer of yellow fruit.

Greens: $5.00 per 6 pack

- Mamba Kale – A vigorous dino type kale. Very cold hardy.
- Roxy Lettuce – A butter head lettuce with reddish leaves
- Wasabina Mustard – A cold tolerant mustard that is very spicy

Potatoes: $5.00 per small bag

- Red LaSoda – Reddish skin and white flesh. A good all purpose potato.
- Constance – Very good baking potato.
- Russian Blue – Smallish purple potato. Somewhat starchy.

Onions: $2.00 per 10 slips

- Super Star White Onion – An intermediate day onion. Needs plenty of sun to get large
- Borettana Cipollini Onions – A small specialty onion very flavorful
- Red Torpedo Onion – unusual shape but considered a sweet onion

Beans and Peas: $3.00 per package

- Maxibel Bean – A bush type filet bean.
- Royal Burgundy Bean – A purple bush bean that turns green when cooked.
- Avalanche Snow Pea – Larger type of snow pea
- Little Purple Snow Pea – Beautiful purple flowers that are edible. Excellent for container growing
- Snack Hero Snap Pea – Good tasting snap pea with 4-inch pods.

Microgreens: $1.00 per package

- Miscellaneous varieties

Artichokes: $6 per pot

- Trevor