4-H Youth Development Program
Access, Equity, and Belonging Academic Coordinator II
Serving California Statewide

Position Overview
The University of California, Agriculture and Natural Resources (UC ANR), a statewide program with local development and delivery, is seeking an Access, Equity and Belonging UC Cooperative Extension (UCCE) Academic Coordinator.

Location Headquarters. State 4-H Office, UC ANR Office, Davis, CA.

Purpose. The Academic Coordinator (ACII) will provide leadership and support to 4-H professionals throughout the state to increase the engagement and participation of unserved and underserved youth and adult audiences in all delivery modes of the 4-H Youth Development Program.

As such, the Academic Coordinator will:

- Develop systems and resources to build the capacity of 4-H professionals to increase 4-H youth membership and adult volunteerism among the Latinx and all unserved and underserved communities.
- Develop tools and resources (e.g., curricula) and provide training to empower 4-H professionals to address the needs and interests of unserved and underserved youth and families and to expand and diversify their 4-H Youth Development Programs.
- Identify priority issues and inform on best practices to better reach unrepresented youth, families, and communities in California.
- Design and implement strategies to improve staff and volunteers’ skills to enhance inclusiveness and intercultural competence.
- Collaborate in acquiring funding for extension and/or creative activity.

Geographic Assignment and Clientele. This position will be headquartered in Davis at the State 4-H Office and will serve all 58 counties in California in partnership with UC ANR Specialists (2), 4-H Youth Development Advisors (21) and 40+ 4-H Community Education Specialists to develop program systems, resources, and capacity. This activity will support our 60,000 youth members and 10,000 adult volunteers in reaching access, equity, and belonging excellence.

Relationships: The Academic Coordinator is responsible administratively to the California 4-H State Director. Collaborate with 4-H YDP and Youth Family and Communities Advisors, Vice Provost of Strategic Initiatives and Statewide Programs, Vice-Provost of Research and Extension, UC ANR Associate Vice-President, and Vice-President.
