

CALIFORNIA AGRICULTURE

Volume 28
Number 2

FEBRUARY

1974

Hermaphroditism
In Pistacia Page 3

1973 Farm Act Page 5

Strawberry Fruit
Rot Control Page 6

Asparagus Planting
Crown Orientation Page 8

Processing Roughages
For Wintering
Steer Calves Page 10

Air Pollution
Episode Analysis
In South Coast Basin Page 12

Chemical Sprays for Frost Protection in
Young Citrus Trees Page 13

Sugar Beet Spacing
For Maximum
Production Page 14

Both male and female flowers are seen on this branch of normally dioecious Pistacia. Pistillate (left) and staminate (right) inflorescences at adjacent nodes are on a branch from a P. vera × P. atlantica seedling (see page 3).

