

California Agriculture

AN ACT

Passed at the city of Washington, on Monday, the - Second - day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one Granting public lands to the several States and Territories which may provide colleges for benefit of agriculture and the mechanic arts.

the quantities to which said State shall be entitled shall be selected from such lands of such State, and the Secretary of the Interior is hereby directed to states in which there are not the minimum number of acres subject to a at one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre to which said State m for the provisions of this act, land scrip to the amount in acres for the distributive share; said scrip to be sold by said States and the pro to the uses and purposes prescribed in this act and for no other us

The Morrill Act at 150: How a land-grant law launched the University of California

