

To document oak mortality and oak tree removal from areas possibly infected with SOD, researchers are using an

Hope for SOD resistance

Tanoak appears to be more susceptible than coast live oak to this new Phytophthora species. But variation in tree response to artificial infec