PURPOSE

The annual performance appraisal process is intended to promote communication between employees and their supervisors about work expectations and goals. It is an opportunity for the supervisor to provide objective feedback to employees, and to coach for continued improvement. This universal form is designed to be used for the wide range of staff positions at UC ANR.

NEW IN 2019: Streamlined form and updated definitions of job elements/core competencies

SUMMARY OF EMPLOYEE ACCOMPLISHMENTS

1

Describe the employee's progress and achievements in relation to pre-established goals and/or performance expectations. Include goals identified at the beginning of the review period as well as new goals added during the year, as appropriate.

REVIEW OF CORE COMPETENCIES (PREVIOUSLY KNOWN AS "PERFORMANCE ELEMENTS")

2

Use the ANR Performance Standards as a reference in assigning ratings. Note: ANR Performance Standards have been updated for the 2018/19 performance year to align with the UC Core Competency Model.

SUMMARY OF KEY STRENGTHS, AREAS FOR DEVELOPMENT AND OVERALL RATING

3

Summarize the employee's key strengths, areas for improvement, and other factors that characterize the employee's overall performance during the review period. The overall performance rating should reflect the supervisor's general assessment of the employee's performance. Individual performance elements are not designed to provide a mathematical mechanism for arriving at the rating.

GOALS AND DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITIES

4

Document future goals, expectations, development opportunities, training recommendations, and any action plans. The ANR Learning & Development website is a resource for identifying training and professional development opportunities. This section is critical where performance deficiencies have been noted, especially for Core Competencies that have been rated "Partially Meets" or "Does Not Meet" job expectations.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Attach additional documents as appropriate to support the evaluation and to summarize future goals and development plans if the form does not allow sufficient space.

Before finalizing this appraisal document, the employee's supervisor should discuss the employee's performance with the second-level supervisor (the manager to whom the supervisor reports) to ensure that the employee's performance is being rated consistently according to ANR Performance Standards.
