A. INTRODUCTION

San Clemente Island is designated as an Area of Special Biological Significance and under Executive Order 13158 all Areas of Special Biological Significance were deemed National Marine Protected Areas. The Marine Life Protection Act Amendments of 2004 required the effectiveness of all National Marine Protected Areas, California State Marine Protected Areas, and Areas of Special Biological Significance to be reevaluated to design new Marine Protected Areas that together function as a statewide network. The 1999 and 2004 amendments of the Marine Life Protection Act (Chapter 10.5 of the California Fish and Game Code, §2850-2863) directed the state to reevaluate and redesign California's system of Marine Protected Areas and requires monitoring of those Marine Protected Areas. All of the Channel Islands, including San Clemente Island, were considered for designation of Marine Protected Areas. In order to avoid designation of a state Marine Protected Area at San Clemente Island, two no-take safety zones were designated around the island in conjunction with the Marine Life Protection Act. The safety zones, that extend out to 3 nautical miles, were incorporated in the management boundary of the 2013 San Clemente Island Integrated Natural Resource Management Plan. As agreed with the State and documented in the San Clemente Island Integrated Natural Resource Management Plan, these safety zones act as defacto Marine Protected Areas and are monitored similarly to the South Coast Marine Protected Areas. In 2012/2013, baseline Remotely Operated Vehicle surveys and bathymetric mapping efforts were conducted at San Clemente Island (Cooperative Agreement W9126G-12-2-0041) to support safety zone monitoring. The work under this Agreement will build on the baseline 2012/2013 Remotely Operated Vehicle surveys to continue to evaluate changes to fishes and invertebrates inside and outside no-take safety zones. The objective of this project is to continue long-term monitoring of fishes and invertebrates in order to evaluate the ecological changes within San Clemente Island safety zones with a focus on evaluating differences between the no-take zones and those that are open to fishing consistent with the California Department of Fish and Wildlife Marine Protected Area Monitoring Action Plan (California Department of Fish and Wildlife and California Ocean Protection Council, 2018; <https://www.wildlife.ca.gov/Conservation/Marine/MPAs/Management/Monitoring/Action-Plan>). The principal components of this cooperative agreement are: (1) conduct subtidal marine surveys of fishes and invertebrates at San Clemente Island safety zones; (2) conduct preliminary analysis; and (3) prepare a draft and final preliminary report.

B. PURPOSE

This cooperative agreement includes three base tasks and three options . The first base task is to conduct subtidal, imagery-based habitat surveys for fishes and selected invertebrates based on species observed in 2012/2013. The second base task is to conduct preliminary spatial analyses (including, but not limited to, habitat suitability models) on the fish and invertebrate data combined with existing bathymetric maps of the seafloor. The third task is to develop a preliminary report with a summary of the surveys.

The objectives of this Agreement are to:

- Quantify the density and abundance of demersal fishes and selected invertebrates inside safety zones F and G.
- Quantify spatial patterns in the distribution of demersal fishes and selected invertebrates inside safety zones F and G.

C. LOCATION

This project is located at Naval Auxiliary Landing Field San Clemente Island (part of Naval Base Coronado). See Figure 1 (page 17) for specific project location.

The Recipient shall inform the CATR via e-mail of any unusual animal species observed while conducting surveys in the field (e.g. species which are federally listed or are State of Species of Special Concern). Information should include (a) location, (b) date, (c) time and (d) any detailed facts about the sighting.

21. Throughout the term of this Agreement the CATR shall be afforded the opportunity by the Recipient to periodically observe the Recipient's field activities, to review computer or paper files of raw data, prepared data (such as data analyses, summaries, maps, figures, tables, etc.), or any record deemed appropriate by the CAA in establishing the Recipient's performance in fulfilling the requirements of this Agreement.

22. The Department of the Navy, via the CAA, may request updated data presented on maps, figures and/or tables whenever the Department of the Navy's need to obtain this information is before the next report required under Section I of this Agreement. The Recipient shall forward the requested data electronically within ten (10) days from the date of request. If the requested data cannot be provided within this time frame, the Recipient shall forward electronically the most updated raw data to the CAA, via the CATR. The Department of the Navy understands that facilitating the requested most updated data may reduce the amount of work that would normally be accomplished during the period of time required to complete the request. The Recipient shall document the amount of efforts and its translated cost estimate that would have been incurred by the Recipient to complete the request for updated data. This document shall be electronically forwarded to the CAA (via CATR) to review so that the Department of the Navy will have a firm understanding on the amount of work displaced that would have normally been accomplished during the period of time required to complete the request.
