

Time	Session	Presenter
8:00 AM	Registration, Coffee and Pastries
8:30 AM	Wild grapes as a reservoir of genetic diversity for the future	Dario Cantu, Professor & Louis Martini Endowed Chair, Dept. of Viticulture & Enology, UC Davis
9:00 AM	Grapevine breeding at UC Davis	Luis Diaz Garcia, Assistant Professor; Dept. of Viticulture & Enology UC Davis
9:30 AM	BREAK
9:40 AM	Is regenerative the path forward for winegrape production?	Cristina Lazcano, Assistant Professor of Soils and Plant Nutrition, Dept. of Land, Air and Water Resources, UC Davis
10:10 AM	Impacts of extreme climate/climate change on berry development and wine quality	Elisabeth Forrestel, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Viticulture & Enology, UC Davis

10:40-11:40 AM: BRUNCH - 60 MINUTES

Time	Session	Presenter
10:40 am	Table 1: Use of weather information for addressing frost, heat, and spray drift risk	Mark Battany, UCCE Water Management and Biometeorology Advisor Farm Advisor
	Table 2: Trunk diseases of grapevines	Akif Eskalen, Professor of Cooperative Extension, Dept. of Plant Pathology, UC Davis
	Table 3: Effects of clone and rootstock on productivity and resilience	Justin Tanner, Viticulture Farm Advisor, San Joaquin & Stanislaus Counties, UCCE
	Table 4: Working toward higher resolution automated irrigation	David Block, Professor, Dept. of Viticulture and Enology, UC Davis; Roman Kozak, Chief Technology Officer and Co-founder, Verdi AG; Guillermo Garcia Zamora, Vineyard Manager, Dept. of Viticulture & Enology, UC Davis
	Table 5: Pierce's Disease in vineyards	Monica Donegan & Alexandra Kahn, UC Berkeley Almeida Lab
	Table 6: Ag-Bee Demo	Briana Layfield, President, Ag-Bee LLC; Anil Mantri, Scientific Research Associate, Nansen Lab, Department of Entomology & Nematology, UC Davis; Christian Nansen, Professor, Insect Ecology and Optical Sensing; Department of Entomology & Nematology, UC Davis Nate Nouwels, Chief Pilot and Operations Manager, Ag-Bee, LLC
1:50 PM	Q&A/Discussion

Thank you to our Event Sponsors!

Thank you to our Extension Partners!

Aggie Gold Partners

Aggie Blue Partners

