Jack	Carter	jackcarter@yahoo.com	2020	Other Vol	08/06/24		1		0	1			Coordinating with D'Miles Salmon and Christopher Edmonds who work for the sustainability and nature programs there, I am reconstructing and maintaining their worm bins just outside of the nature museum. I will be writing up several sheets for care of the worms which they will laminate. There is a lot of turn over due to the nature of that business and the inperson training I have done left when the trained personnel left. My plan is to go every month for awhile to get things stabilized and make sure the signage is working for the crew.
