CLERK'S DUTIES

CLERKS ARE TO:

1. Pick up small plate, fork or spoon and napkin for each judge.
2. Provide bottled water for judges.
3. Follow numbers consecutively.
4. Alert the first participant group when it is time for them to be evaluated (but not too early).
5. Assist the judges in any way that will help them. Judges may request to see the complete dish before being served.
6. If you notice any diagrams or notes being used, report it to one of the committee members.
7. Encourage participants to relax until judges are ready to evaluate them.
8. Encourage participants to take part in the judging activity.
