

FIBERSHED WOOL & FINE FIBER SYMPOSIUM

The Ecology of Wool

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 2014 • 10AM - 6PM
DANCE PALACE, 503 B STREET • POINT REYES STATION

SYMPOSIUM TICKETS $40 AT WWW.FIBERSHED.ORG
FIBERSHED MARKETPLACE OPEN FREE TO THE PUBLIC

Presentations on breeding practices that build heirloom garments, and predator- and pollinator-friendly practices that harmonize and blur the line between wild and domestic spaces, all bringing beauty and function to our fields and wardrobes.

Special presentation on predator-friendly practices
by Project Coyote.

Hands-on demonstrations on sheep shearing, skirting fleece, wool grading, angora rabbit shearing, cashmere fiber processing, felting and natural dyes.

And a Marketplace of amazing artisans and farmers selling their freshly farmed, locally grown & made creations and fibers.
The Marketplace in the church building will be open to the public at no charge.

More information and tickets online at:
www.fibershed.org/wool-symposium-2014
or contact fibershed@gmail.com

fibershed® local fibers • local dyes • local labor