

Mexican Bush Sage

Salvia leucantha

A bushy shrub that grows to 3-4ft tall and wide.

Attractive and reliable shrub with gray green foliage, fuzzy white stems and purple flower spikes blooming summer through fall (and through spring in some mild winter areas)

Suggested varieties: 'Midnight'; 'Santa Barbara' (compact)

Other: Hardy to 15 degrees F Can handle part shade and occasional summer water inland. Attracts hummingbirds.

More Info

http://www.floridata.com/ref/S/salv\_leu.cfm

http://cals.arizona.edu/pima/gardening/aridplants/Salvia\_leucantha.html