NEW AT FAIR OAKS ADULT ACTIVITY CENTER GARDEN

Fall and Winter Vegetable Gardening

Fair Oaks Adult Activity Center Garden
2600 Middlefield Road
Redwood City, CA
September 21, 2018, 11:00am-12:00pm

It's time to plant your fall and winter vegetables! In this introductory class, you'll learn how to select seeds and seedlings that are most suited to your climate and conditions. Then you'll learn how to plant seeds and seedlings and how to nurture them to yield the most bountiful fall and winter harvests. As a bonus, you'll also gain valuable tips on crop rotation, cover cropping, and non-toxic pest control. The presentation will be followed by a hands-on session in the garden. Bring a hat, garden gloves, and a beverage for yourself. For more information call 650-780-7525. No registration required.

One of our newest UC Master Gardener projects is a partnership with Peninsula Family Service Older Adult Services program at the Fair Oaks Adult Activity Center Garden in Redwood City. Our overall goal for this project is to engage adults 55 and older in enjoying, working in and eating the food grown in the garden, while educating them on environmentally sustainable and healthy gardening practices.

Hillsborough Harvest Garden

Contact Lennie Gotcher at lenniego@gmail.com

The garden is dedicated to educating and encouraging residents to grow edible plants successfully in Hillsborough's micro-climate. We hold approximately 16-18 two-hour workshops in the garden annually and at each we provide education on various vegetable gardening topics that are seasonal and timely. We teach our residents to prune fruit trees both in winter and summer, to sow seeds, transplant, amend soil, sharpen tools, to grow cover crops, integrated pest management, and much more. The produce raised is delivered to our local food banks.
