

BQA Training

Sierraville School, 305 S. Lincoln St, Sierraville, Calif.

Tuesday, June 11, 2024

4:30 pm – 7:30 pm

What is BQA? A program for U.S. beef producers to improve cattle management based on scientific knowledge.

Why get BQA certification?

- ☑ Premiums when you sell your cattle
- ☑ Access to markets
- ☑ Improve cattle herd health and management
- ☑ Veterinarian at training to ask questions
- ☑ And more!

Featured Speaker:

Gabriele Maier, DVM, Ph.D. with UC Davis School of Veterinary Medicine. Dr. Maier is an Assistant Specialist in Cooperative Extension with a focus on cattle health & reproduction.

Registration:

$10 includes dinner & materials!

<https://ucanr.edu/bqa>

Event Hosts

This event is hosted and coordinated by UC Cooperative Extension Plumas-Sierra – Tracy Schohr, Livestock and Natural Resources Advisor Tkschohr@ucanr.edu or 916-716-2643