

8th California Oak Symposium

Sustaining Oak Woodlands Under Current and Future Conditions

Monday-Thursday, March 21-24, 2022
San Luis Obispo, California

Visit
www.ucanr.edu/oaksymposium

Call for Abstracts

Submission Deadline: 12 Noon, August 16

Oral and/or poster abstracts are encouraged from agency personnel, academics, land managers, and ranchers!

Potential topics include but are not limited to the following:

- Ecology and Wildlife
- Climate Change
- Fire
- Land Use and Conservation
- Pests and Diseases
- Policy
- Practical Applications for Management
- Urban Oaks
- & much more!

See the website for details and information for speakers.

Please note: Those who previously submitted an abstract do not need to re-submit unless your abstract has changed.

Become a sponsor!

March 21 Tours

Dangermond
Preserve

The Sinton
Family's Avenales
Ranch

Santa Margarita
Ranch Vineyard

Learning Among the Oaks Trail

Climate Change Session Keynote

Setting the Tone: An Overview of Climate Change and Oaks

David Ackerly, Dean and Professor,
College of Natural Resources, UC Berkeley

Visit the online agenda to see confirmed sessions and speakers!

Contacts for more information

Program: Bill Tietje, Co-Chair

Logistics: UC ANR Program Support,

Julia Kalika or Sherry Cooper, (530) 750-1361

Website: www.ucanr.edu/oaksymposium

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA
Agriculture and Natural Resources