

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA GREEN WASTE-WOOD BIOMASS MANAGEMENT SYMPOSIUM

February 9, 2017 • 8:00 A.M. – 5:00 P.M.

The Handlery Hotel, 950 Hotel Circle N, San Diego, CA 92108

How do we best manage and dispose of the increasing green waste and wood biomass occurring across all southern California landscapes?

This one-day event brings together a broad range of experts, land managers, industry professionals, scientists, and policy makers to better understand the challenges and discover strategies to overcome obstacles and implement best management practices.

Topics Include:

- Direct and indirect causes and impacts of increasing biomass situation
- Continued threats, challenges and at-risk considerations
- Biomass management methods and resources
- Policy issues – municipal, County, State and Federal
- Best management practices and economic impacts

Registration Fee: $49.00/person

Includes continental breakfast, lunch, refreshments, handout materials, displays and CEU's
