4-H, FFA and Grange members may transfer projects between organizations once in a calendar year. In order to show or compete with the youth organization that the animal is being transferred to, youth must be under the supervision of the new youth organization with the project for the required number of days as outlined the 4-H Policy Handbook Chapter 7, IV, E Animal Ownership. This form must be on file at the county 4-H office for the transfer to be considered complete.
