

APPLICATION FOR THE CLAYTON FLOYD NEER 4-H STEER, SWINE, SHEEP AND GOAT LOAN

A memorial fund was established in 2010 by the Neer family and Indian Valley 4-H in memory of Clayton Floyd, who died of a tragic accident in 2010. A revolving loan has been established in his memory. This loan will be in the amount of $1,000.00 for Steer, $500 for Swine and $300 for sheep or goat project.

This Loan must be repaid within two weeks after receiving a check for the sale of the animal and livestock insurance must be purchased to cover your loan for the animal.

It is also hoped that this loan will encourage members to participate in these projects that might not be able to otherwise.

QUESTIONNAIRE

You may attach a separate sheet with answers if necessary

Why do you want to raise this animal?

What other 4-H project areas are you interested in?

Do you have a place to keep your animal?

How much time could you spend with your animal each day?

If you sell an animal at auction, what would you do with the profit?

Are you involved in any other animal projects?

How many 4-H projects have you completed?

What is your percentage of club meeting attendance?

If you do not get this loan, how will you finance your animal?

If you are chosen to get the loan, will you be willing to insure the animal to cover the loan in the event the animal should die before the fair? (This insurance is very inexpensive and can be obtained through Cal-Farm Insurance.)

Can you provide names and telephone numbers of two 4-H leaders to be used as references, if necessary?

Will you agree to pay back the loan within two weeks after receiving your check from the sale of the animal at the auction?
