

Wildlife Management for Working Landscapes

February 11, 2016

10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

Old City Hall Restaurant, 7400 Monterey Road, 2nd floor, Gilroy, CA 95020

$15.00 Registration (includes lunch)

*Photo Credit: Stuart B. Weiss,
Creekside Center for Earth Observation/USGS Multimedia Gallery*

Presentations

Minimizing Predation Losses on Ranches

Dan Macon, Rancher/Assistant Rangeland Specialist, UC Davis

Working Lands and Conservation Lands: An Essential Partnership

Stuart Weiss, Creekside Center for Earth Observation

Collaborating with Beavers: Increasing Land's Resilience to Drought

Brock Dolman, Occidental Arts and Ecology Center

Ground Squirrel Management on Private Lands

Sheila Barry, UCCE Santa Clara

Learning from Each Other: The Rancher to Rancher Network

Kent Reeves, Cowboy Conservationist

Hosted by the Guadalupe-Coyote and Loma Prieta Resource Conservation Districts

In partnership with the USDA-Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS)

RSVP to Loma Prieta RCD

408-847-4171 or mark@lomaprietarcd.org